The 4 days event will take place in Johannesburg from the 09-14 December 2018 at Kempton Park -Ekurhuleni Municipality

SAGF has been designated to plan and conduct the National School Games 2018 event for the code of gymnastics. This annual School Games event is an initiative by SRSA and has schools from all 9 provinces competing in over 16 codes of sport. The following four of the nine disciplines of SAGF are used for the school gymnastics program:

1. Women's Artistic Gymnastics (Level 2-3) on floor, vault, low -bar and beam
2. Men's Artistic Gymnastics (Level 2-3) on floor, vault, low -bar and parallel bar
3. Aerobic Gymnastics (Level 2-3) for individual girls, boys and pairs / mixed pairs
4. Rope Skipping (Old Level 4) for routines and individual speed / double under

Gymnastics Provinces which will participate are:

Eastern Cape, Western Cape, Northern Cape, Mpumalanga, Kwa Zulu Natal, Free State, Limpopo, North West and Gauteng.

The 4 days event will take place in Johannesburg this year at GYMAGIC-Kempton Park. SAGF host the gymnastics competitions with the leadership of Marti Heri, National Development Manager, Melvin Edwards, Competition Manager, Riaan Kruger Facility and Program Manager of GyMagic with another 6 members of the Local Organizing Committee. Rope Skipping and Aerobics Technical Committee members will organize their discipline. Almost 400 learners will be representing all 9 provinces with over 110 teachers in a role of coaches, judges and managers. Four disciplines of gymnastics are part of the competitive program with school pupils in U 13 and U15 age groups. 7 provinces take part with pupils of U 15 age groups from special schools in the disability section with the Level 1 or Level 2 program of different disciplines.

The categories are SASA II (South African Sports Association for Intellectually Impaired) and Deaf. In addition to the competition SAGF will have teacher's workshop on 13th of December, for all disciplines and for teachers working with children of special needs. The annual school's gymnastics meeting will take place on 11th December.
